

READ AND PONDER!

PEOPLE'S REFORM TICKET,

FOR ALL STATE AND COUNTY OFFICES, TO BE FILLED IN THE OCTOBER ELECTION, 1870.

FELLOW-CITIZENS OF OTTAWA:—Such apportionment, would greatly relieve many farmers and mechanics, and would be a relief to the poor, who are now suffering from the hard times, we earnestly ask your attention to the fact that, in a few days, concerning our State law of produce.

When we were told that the owners of the land, who are now suffering from the hard times, we earnestly ask your attention to the fact that, in a few days, concerning our State law of produce.

When we were told that the owners of the land, who are now suffering from the hard times, we earnestly ask your attention to the fact that, in a few days, concerning our State law of produce.

When we were told that the owners of the land, who are now suffering from the hard times, we earnestly ask your attention to the fact that, in a few days, concerning our State law of produce.

When we were told that the owners of the land, who are now suffering from the hard times, we earnestly ask your attention to the fact that, in a few days, concerning our State law of produce.

When we were told that the owners of the land, who are now suffering from the hard times, we earnestly ask your attention to the fact that, in a few days, concerning our State law of produce.

the time when the same is needed. That the school fund collected in each county be retained within the same, and disbursed for the benefit of that county.

The abolishing of all offices, not specially provided for by the Constitution, or absolutely demanded by the service of the State.

The careful scrutiny of every appropriation, whether State or County, and reducing the expenditures within the strictest economy.

Nebraska City, Sept., 1870.
By order of the People's Reform League.

H. C. WOLFE,
RICHARD JUSTICE,
ROBERT HAWKE,
THOMAS HANLON,
FREDERICK BETHUNE,
C. H. COWLES,
J. E. DODD,
JOHN McCARTHY,
M. R. DAVIS,
JAMES R. KESTERSON,
HENRY PENNINGTON,
DAVID STRAUB,
J. T. MEADOWS.

In obedience to the above call, the undersigned, in Nebraska City, Sept. 17, 1870, and put in nomination the following named gentlemen:

Scouters,
ROBERT HAWKE,
F. HENKEL,
Representatives,
W. E. DILLON,
JAS. E. DODD,
EDWARD MEYER,
JOHN OVERKOP,
J. W. CONNER,
County Commissioners,

HENRY PENNINGTON, Esq., offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the principles set forth in the address of our committee, and that the nominees of this convention are pledged to use all honorable means to effect the reforms, and redress the wrongs referred to in that address.

Resolved, That we are opposed to the Legislature granting any more "State Bonds" in this county, unless urgently demanded by the wants of a large community.

Resolved, That while we do not wage a war on capital, we believe the time has come when every laborer of his country should be able to support his family, and that we will endeavor to secure the same for a few individuals, or corporations, at the expense of the laboring millions.

Fellow-citizens of Ottawa county, we ask your candid consideration of the facts and principles set forth above, and the character and capacity of the gentlemen nominated. Feeling the urgent necessity for a reformation, in our State and County affairs, we earnestly appeal to you, to elect the above-named, by such an overwhelming majority, as shall satisfy the world, that we are in earnest.

W. L. BROTHERTON,
M. R. DAVIS,
J. H. KESTERSON,
JOHN McCARTHY,
J. NEUMAN,
Executive Committee.